

Anuj Joshi, Managing Director

Anuj graduated in Urban Land Economics from Sheffield Hallam University and initially worked in the property management department of English Partnerships. Following promotion to the South Yorkshire development team, Anuj worked on a variety of schemes throughout the South Yorkshire region.

In May 2000, he joined Priority Sites as Development Manager and was responsible for the delivery of projects in South Yorkshire and the South West. Anuj was promoted to Development Director overseeing the development programme for southern England. He was responsible for the delivery of a number of high profile schemes including the £13m Central Riverside office scheme in Sheffield.

In 2006, he and Chief Executive Paul Barber, created Strategic Sites Ltd a joint venture with Helios Properties plc, Kilmartin Property Group and Wynyard Park Ltd.
