

John Boanas, Development Director

John graduated with a degree in Land Management from Leicester Polytechnic and initially worked for two local authority property departments before joining English Estates in 1990. He subsequently worked on a variety of projects throughout Yorkshire and the Humber for English Partnerships and Yorkshire Forward including the regeneration of the former coalfield area of Dearne Valley. In 2000 he joined Priority Sites as Senior Development Executive and was responsible for delivering projects throughout the North West and northern England. John was promoted to Development Director overseeing the development programme for the north of England. He was responsible for the delivery of a number of high profile projects across the North of England including the Humber Quays office development at Hull.

In 2008 he joined Chief Executive Paul Barber and Managing Director Anuj Joshi at Strategic Sites Ltd a joint venture with Helios Properties plc, Kilmartin Property Group and Wynyard Park Ltd.